

UNION NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT.

JOHN BELL,

OF TENNESSEE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

EDWARD EVERETT,

OF MASSACHUSETTS.

FOR CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS.

GEN. LESLIE COMBS,

OF PAYETTE.

COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

FOR SHERIFF.

JOSEPH R. GROSS.

FOR JAILOR.

WILLIAM H. LUSBY.

FOR CORONER.

ELI C. GARNER.

CITY NOMINATIONS.

FOR MARSHAL.

WILLIAM MURPHY.

FOR ASSISTANT MARSHAL.

CHARLES H. WICKLIFFE.

LEXINGTON, JULY 25 1860

WM. H. WADSWORTH

UNION CANDIDATE FOR STATE ELECTOR

Will speak in this city on Friday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

We presume this announcement will of itself be sufficient to secure for this exceedingly able and eloquent advocate of our cause a large audience; and we can safely promise as they have rarely had.

We trust that as many of our friends from the country as can make it convenient will be present. The night is light and pleasant, and as this is the only opportunity Mr.

Wadsworth will have of addressing the people of Fayette, we are desirous that as many of them as possible shall avail themselves of the occasion now offered.

UNION CLUB—EDWARD BELL AND

EVERETT MEETING.—The meeting at the Court House on Monday night, to form a Union Club, was an evidence of earnest enthusiasm and zeal, such as the present can-case has not before developed in this city.

At nearly four hundred persons could scarcely be obtained within the house, while crowds were collected in the yard about the windows. Not only the people of all classes in the city were gathered in large numbers, but many from the country, some from distant parts, were also present to participate in the proceedings, and none at any time in large a political assembly, have we witnessed such close and respectful attention to the speakers throughout. Though the speaking continued to a late hour, no one seemed disposed to leave until it was over. They showed the Union, and they did hear their countrymen, truthfully and eloquently.

No man in all that vast, respectful assemblage, who listened attentively to a chain of facts arrayed before him in Mr.

Harrison's splendid oratory, could doubt for a moment that in the present aspect of political affairs, dissolution of the Union, if not seriously contemplated, is at least to be apprehended. The fearful consequences of such a dire result, were pictured forth in truthful colors, and their alarming character was manifest to all.

As the proceedings of the meeting are to be fully reported in another column, we shall not give them in detail here. Judge

R. Harrison, on taking the chair, in a brief speech imparted some cheering intelligence to the prospects of the Union party, and by the manner in which he spoke, clearly showed that heart and soul he was fully enlisted in the good cause. When John M.

Harrison took the stand, a lusty cheer wellled from the throng of Union hearts that surrounded him, well calculated to infuse new fire and zeal in him if he had not been so. But, like the veteran Robertson, his heart was already in the cause, and he needed not this flattering stimulus, however grateful, to push him to his work. He was listened to with the most respectful attention from the beginning to the close of his very able speech, and we are satisfied it will yield good fruit in the exciting campaign now pending. Mr. Harrison will not only do bravely in the cause of Bell and Everett but will do it effectively, and we commend him to a dispassionate hearing wherever he may raise his manly voice. He scores sectional and disunion to the quick, and their advocates may rest assured that they will meet him, at any time or place, a woman worker of his deed.

Mr. Harrison was followed by Gen. Combs, who was greeted with hearty shouts on his appearance upon the stand. He looked somewhat jaded by the fatigues of travel and speaking, and was a little hoarse, but the good humor and youthful spiritfulness that never deserts him, came as usual to his aid and he playfully gave an account of his stewardship thus far in the canvass for the office of Clerk of the Court of Appeals. He amused the crowd immensely—got up many a hearty laugh, and received many a ringing shout of applause. The cheering encouraged where on the night of the first Monday in August as well cheer their hearts and stimulate their efforts for the final battle in November. They are true to the prospects and fame of their immortal leader, whose remains repose in their midst, and they will never abandon the cause of the Union and the Constitution.

COUNTY ELECTORS.—H. C. DUNLAP and WICKLIFFE, Esqs., have been appointed by the Central Committee Assistant Electors for BELL and EVERETT in the county of Fayette. They intend to make an active and efficient canvass of the county, and for their efforts good results will certainly follow. They have already made a list of appointments in connection with Messrs.

Brackridge and Allen, Democratic Asstant County Electors, which appear in another part of this paper.

Both our guest young candidates for Electors for the State at large, Wm. H. Wad-worth, of Mason, and E. L. VANWINKLE, of Wayne, have commenced the canvass of the State with great vigor, and all accounts represent the speeches of both as attended with extraordinary enthusiasm. Mr. Vanwinkle made a speech at Somerset last week, a graphic account of which we have read, and the general drift of it was certainly admiral and effective. We trust it will not be long before the people of Fayette will have the pleasure of hearing both these able and eloquent advocates of the Union cause.

Gen. Combs, the Union candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is prosecuting the canvass with great zeal and ability, and meets with signal evidences of favor where-ever he goes, not only from his own party, but from the Democratic party. If his friends everywhere are as active and en-er-getic for him from now until the election, as he will be, his election is placed beyond a reasonable doubt.

There are now four candidates for the office of the clerk, viz: Leslie Combs, of Fayette; R. B. Belling, Douglas Democrat, Clinton; M. G. Clark, Breckinridge Democrat, and Brent Hopkins, of Oldham, Independent

Democrat.

The Union men of Mason had a glorious mass meeting near Mayfield on Saturday last. Among the speakers were Capt. Brown

W. Harrison and Gen. Leslie Combs, of this city. Our estimable fellow-countryman, Thomas H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was compelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was compelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

pelled to decline the invitation. The

Mayfield Eagle says:—A glorious treat

has been secured from the Union. Thomas

H. CLAY, Esq., was invited, but was com-

Public Speaking.—Gen. LESLIE COMBS,

Wm. H. WADSWORTH, Esq., and Gen. JOHN

M. HARRIS will address the people at Cincinnati to-day, and to Georgetown to-morrow.

They will have large crowds at both places to hear them.

LEXINGTON AND RICHMOND TURNPIKE.—

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond and Lexington Turnpike Company was held at Richmond on Saturday last, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing twelve months, viz: Daniel Brack, President; Curtis Field, Jr., Treasurer, and Wm. L. Nale, R. G. Burton, D.

S. Goodale, and Silas E. S. Directors.

The shareholders reaffirmed their previous order in relation to the proposed extension of a bridge across the Kentucky river near Clay Ferris; and we may expect that the Directors will go faithfully to work and build it, without unnecessary delay.

It will be seen by a notice in our paper this morning that the friends of Douglas and Johnson in this county are to meet in this city on Monday next, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Democratic Convention that meets in Louisville on the 11th of August.

We had quite a storm of lightning and rain on Sunday afternoon. The lightning struck one house in the city, and several trees in the vicinity. No damage was done to persons, however, and but little property.

The Lexington Chassengers.—This excellent military company will have a dress parade this afternoon and at night a dance at the Phoenix. There is nothing like being a gallant young soldier.

A variety of superb Spanish Cigars, new brands, can be found at the store of our friend, Geo. Wright. We have tested their quality and can vouch for their genuineness.

See advertisement.

The Fall Fair of the Southwestern